Andrea Rose's The Inventors Road Show was just the event I needed. Andrea's nuts and bolts basic training for bringing a product to market provided the structure my team and I needed to bring our innovative ideas that much closer to production.

Thank you for an incredible and informative evening, yesterday, at The Inventors Road Show. My cousin and I sincerely enjoyed the time spent with you, as we now believe that we have a much better understanding of how to turn our ideas into protected assets. We truly appreciate your time and the advice that you shared with us.
